TOO MANY ERRORS

Philadelphia. April 21.—Errors by Wagner and Yerkes in the seventh inning proved the turning point of today's game, which Philadelphia won from Boston by 6 to 4. They were preceded by a single by Murphy and filled the bases. Baker and Daley then each drove in a pair of runners with singles. Houck was wild, giving nine bases on balls, hitting a batsman and making a wild pitch. Wood became wild in the second inning and gave way to Bedient in the third.

Hobert Cavannaugh makes of James Gilley, "Jimmy," all that even the author of the piece could desire. With an exceptionally "fat" part, abounding in slangy lines that ring laughingly of the lamented "Billy Baxter," and himself an ideal type, he gets every possible bit of humor out of one of the most amusing characters of the decade. The audience was also immensely amused by Dorothy Davies, as Jimmy's wife, though to my mind she plays it very much too broadly, too much down.

Even granting that, however, the performance was one of the best of the entire season, and well worth seeing more than once.
